FREE STUDENTSHIPS, NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS, &c.

6. STUDENTSHIPS IN TRAINING AT THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Students of Schools of Art (whether men or women) who have taken the 1st Certificate of the 3rd Grade, and are preparing to become Teachers, are eligible to compete for admission to the training class of the National Art Training School, with an allowance of from 10s. to 35s. a week. They must attend regularly all the meetings of the school. They may be required to perform certain duties as teachers, and must engage to accept the Studentships in Training.

situations to which they may be recommended. They are not at liberty to accept situations without first obtaining the consent of the Principal. Applicants for admission must fill up and send in Form No. 488 before the 15th January or the 20th July. Students who have been on the list of paid students in training or National Scholars, and who retire with credit, may continue to study in the School as Free Students for one year, and this Free Studentship may be renewed on the conditions laid down in paragraph 29 (d) of this Prospectus.

Allowances to students in training.

7. The allowances to students in training are granted for one term only, and are renewable; but no male student can remain more than four years on the paid list, and no female student more than two years without special sanction.

National Scholarships.

8. NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS AT THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Students at Schools of Art who are already engaged in trades which depend upon decorative Art are eligible to compete for National Scholarships with a maintenance allowance of 25s. a week for the Session of about 42 weeks each year. They must attend whenever the school is open. These Scholarships are intended to enable advanced students, who may have given evidence of special aptitude for design, to prosecute their studies in the Training School and Museum.

9. The duties of the National Scholars are defined by the Director for Art. Appointments to these Scholarships will be for one Session only, dating from the first Wednesday in October, and extending to the last Friday in July. They may be renewed for a second Session, and in special cases of great proficiency for a third Session.

Applications must be made, stating the trade intended to be followed, accompanied by drawings, designs, or other evidence of the candidate's ability, on Art Form No. 488, before the 20th of July.

Grants for students' travelling expenses.

10. Students in training and National Scholars may in special cases receive grants in aid of their travelling expenses in visiting Foreign Schools and Galleries. They may be required to do special work for the Department.

11. The Department reserves the right to retain works done in the School by Students in Training or National Scholars.

Subject to disallowance.

12. Should the conduct or progress of National Scholars or Students in training be unsatisfactory their allowances may be reduced or wholly withdrawn.

13. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY TO THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Students of the Royal Academy who desire to become Teachers, and who have attended the Life Class or Upper Division of the Architectural Class there for six months, are qualified to compete for admission to the Training School, and to receive an allowance of 15s. per week. This allowance will be withdrawn if the student does not succeed in obtaining the Art Class Teacher's certificate, and completing the examination for the 1st certificate of the 3rd Grade within the period of three terms.

The payment of $\begin{smallmatrix} 0 & 10 & 0 \end{smallmatrix}$ per term or 3s. per month entitles a Candidate to admission for three evenings weekly.

Students of this Class who have paid fees in it for two consecutive terms, and have passed in all subjects of the 2nd Grade Certificate, and Schoolmasters and Mistresses who hold the Elementary School Teacher's ("D") Certificate, may also work in the general class-rooms at the same fees as an evening artizan.

Pass 2nd
Grade Examination.
Freehand required.

Students who have passed the 2nd Grade examination in Freehand Drawing may join the School at any time during the session, on payment of fees for not less than five months. At the end of the five months, if there be less than five months between that time and the end of the session in July, the student may remain until the end of the session on payment of a proportional fee for each week unexpired up to the last Friday of July. The months of August and September, being the vacation, are not counted as part of the five months paid for.

19. Students who have not passed the 2nd Grade Examination in Freehand Drawing cannot be admitted until they have done so. Examinations for admission are held weekly at the commencement of each Term, and at frequent intervals throughout the year, at the School, on Tuesdays, at 11.45 a.m. and 6.45 p.m., except in the months of May, June, and July, when the evening examination takes place at 5.45 p.m. The examination fees are 2s. 6d. for day Students, and 6d. for evening Students, to be paid at the time of examination. Candidates should bring their own lead pencils and india-rubber. Unsuccessful candidates cannot be re-examined until after a month's interval.
